

Criminal Investigations Training Group

Injury and Death Investigations 40Hr Training Schedule

October 28- November 1, 2024,

Cape Coral Police Department

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Classroom	Classroom	Classroom	Classroom	Classroom
0800 Opening Session Welcoming Remarks Dr. Fred Ponce Investigators Theories/ Scientific Method Responsibilities Assignments Offender Behavior Victimology Case Study Discua	Medical Examiner Dr. Emma O. Lew Estimated Time of Death Gunshot wounds Stabbings Post-Mortem Investigation Case Study	Dr. Heather Walsh- Haney Anthropologist Skeletal anatomy and recovery methods Bone recognition and Identification laboratory Case Study	Crime Scene Analysis Dr. Fred Ponce Homicide Case Studies Case Study Clark	Dr. Heather Walsh-Haney Anthropologist Body Farm. Search and identification, burial site, excavation. Recovery practicums FGCU Buckingman complex

1200 – 1300 LUNCH

Medical Examiner Dr. Emma O. Lew Crime Scene Types of Death Case Study Abascal 1700 End of day	Medical Examiner Dr. Emma O. Lew Sexual assault Death Investigation Case Study	Dr. Heather Walsh- Haney Anthropologist Bone recognition and Identification Laboratory visit Emergent Technologies Institute	Blood spatter identification Homicide case studies continued Case Study Beatriz Mota Dr. Ponce	Dr. Walsh-Haney FGCU Buckingman complex Back at CCPD Exams and Evaluations Dr. Fred Ponce
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------